attracted a huge interest in nationalist politics in Turkey. The election winner, the People's Alliance, composed of the AK Party and MHP did not emerge as a strategic coalition for a certain election, i.e. June 24; instead the alliance was built upon the common ground discussed above.

Commentators argue that nationalism is on the rise in Turkey. They base this assertion on two factors. One of them is that Turkey's two nationalist parties
–the MHP and the Iyi Party – were surprisingly successful in the June 24 elections.

The other factor is the claim that the AK Party has switched its discourse towards nationalism and started to follow nationalist policies in recent years.
