Ted Dekker, Thr3e (Thomas Nelson, 2003) Going into this book and knowing it was “ Christian fiction ” , I really have to admit I didn't expect a great deal (read: anything) from it. There are really, really good Christian writers, but in general, they are writers who happen to be Christian (Madeleine L'Engle is an obvious example, as is Francois Mauriac); as with every other type of message ...

By all accounts seminary student Kevin Parsins is leading a good, if not virtuous, life. But like all people, Kevin has his secrets. And someone wants them revealed. While driving home from a day at graduate school, Kevin receives a call from a mysterious stranger who calls himself Slater. Slater demands Kevin confess his sin in the next three minutes or the vehicle he is manning will be blown to pieces. Thus starts a harrowing chain of events. After narrowly escaping his exploding car, Kevin continues to receive phone calls from Slater, each with another riddle, another consequence, and another three minutes to confess his sin. The problem is Kevin is unsure of what that sin might be. And Slater's cycle won't stop until he figures it out.

The award-winning, best-selling suspense masterwork, now a major motion picture event. Enter a world where nothing is what it seems. Where your closest friend could be your greatest enemy. Kevin Parson is alone in his car when his cell phone rings. A man calling himself Slater offers a deadly ultimatum: You have exactly three minutes to confess your sin to the world. Refuse, and the car you're driving will blow sky high. Then the phone goes dead. Kevin panics. Who would make such a demand? What sin? Yet not sure what else to do, Kevin swerves into a parking lot and runs from his car. Just in case. Precisely three minutes later, a massive explosion sets his world on a collision course with madness. And that's only the first move in this deadly game. From the #1 best-selling fiction author comes a powerful story of good, evil, and all that lies between.

It reminds one of great Persian poetry, here influenced by modern American Poets like: E. E. Cummings-this is a must read for 21st-century poetry.

THR3E, a compilation of three very different stories all with two things in common, mystery and suspense. Each of these thrillers weave a wicked tale of murder, deceit and betrayal while shifting you in every direction at once. If you're a fan of suspenseful thrillers, you're going to love what happens at "Fingers Reach."

Thr3e is a proven, Biblical model of three "characters" that are needed for success in every area of life:The LeaderThe Learnerand The Lifter.This mode of discipleship and mentorship is seen throughout scripture and in the life of almost every world leader that ever rose to power.It's an easy concept to grasp - yet one that many have failed to utilize by placing the people in their lives into wrong categories of connection.In the book "Thr3e" you will be able to evaluate the relationships you have with others, as well as learning the people you should be seeking out to live your best life now. You'll discover the strategy God had used from the beginning of time, in Jesus' ministry and the early church to grow a team that changes the world.Living out this model of discipleship doesn't require a degree in theology or a Bible Study course - it is simply following God's example for leadership and discipleship by fulfilling your call in other's lives, and seeking out those who are called to fulfill a mandate in your life as well.

Three: Enter a world where nothing is what it seems. Where your closest friend could be your greatest enemy. Kevin Parson is driving his car late one summer day when, suddenly, his cell phone rings. A man who identifies himself as Slater speaks in a breathy voice: You have exactly three minutes to confess your sin to the world. Refuse, and the car you're driving will blow sky high. Kevin panics. Who would make such a call? What sin? Kevin ditches the car. Precisely three minutes later, a massive explosion sets his world on a collision course with madness. From the #1 best-selling fiction author comes a powerful story of good, evil, and all that lies between. Obsessed: A deadly tale of ultimate obsession. Stephen Friedman is making a good living in good times. He's just an ordinary guy. Or so he thinks. But one day an extraordinary piece of information tells him differently. It's a clue from the grave of a Holocaust survivor. A clue that makes him heir to an incredible fortune...a clue that only he and one other man can possibly understand. That man is Roth Braun, a serial killer who has been waiting for Stephen for thirty years. Roth was stopped once before. This time nothing will get in his way. Known worldwide for page-turning, adrenaline-laced thrillers, Dekker raises the stakes in this story of passion, revenge, and an all-consuming obsession for the ultimate treasure.

Donovan Chase is a privileged, popular seventeen year old who finds himself amidst a throng of homeless youth insurgents set against a corrupting American government in the wake of a third world war. After meeting the extremely independent Zhi, and a mysterious girl named Zoe who immediately catches his eye, he is forced to make the decision to return to his old life or to join the two. When the group finds out about a secret government agency known as the NCDC, he and his new friends take on the daunting task of restoring the US to its former glory, and attempting to establish what "One Nation Under God" really is. Following a cross-country journey that takes him from boy to man, Donovan must face himself and learn the skills that it takes to become a leader and to learn to value what is truly important in life. On the journey, the group rallies together like-minded young individuals as the NCDC makes power plays and the nation begins to slowly self-implode. The US is not the only nation at play, however, as alliances are made, lines are drawn, and treaties take place around the world making war inevitable. War Thr3e is a contemporary, action packed saga that follows the title character from riches to rags to becoming the leader of a third world war.
